

Goodwin Library Permission to Photograph

As a public facility providing programming to our community, the Goodwin Library often photographs as many as our programs and functions as possible. These photographs may be used in local papers, on the government channel, and/or as other publicity. Photographs are also kept as part of our organizational archives. While attendance at a public event implies a consent to be photographed; the staff of the Goodwin Library recognizes and respects the rights of parents to protect their and their children's privacy. As such, we make every attempt to receive parental permission before disseminating any photographs with a child's identity attached. The permission slip below will be kept on file for the duration of the program and will be destroyed at the end of that program. Please note that no members of the staff or administration of the Goodwin Library are responsible for the release of any publicity photos not taken by members of that staff or administration. (i.e: newspaper journalists, other parents, etc.)
